Foreword

Every individual is unique by his or her attributes that he or she tends to carry while dealing with fellow beings. Certain personality traits are undoubtedly inborn and some subjective to grow as one gets inputs from the external world. That is where we believe that learning is an ongoing process. As Zig-Zigler quotes, "Learn, unlearn and relearn."

Similarly, at ISBR, every student is dear to us because they have portrayed a different image on the canvas of life. We are indeed proud of them. However, few broadened and challenged their limits and pushed the boundaries to stretch their imagination. They certainly are positive catalysts to transcend the border between the known and the right.

We take pride in introducing the future leaders who could think at the speed of light, be very positive, give shapes to their ideas and set the whole campus with their POSITIVE VIBES.

As you walk through the pages of this booklet, you will find the heartfelt messages of our students. These narratives reflect the unique and diverse experiences that have shaped them into the individuals they are today. You will witness the profound impact of education on their lives and how they have imbibed the spirit of continuous learning, unlearning, and relearning.

We are sure you would love to know each one of them. Here they come.....

Words of Wisdom

There is magic inherent in success, and it never ceases to amaze anyone. Some strange alchemy leaves the stamp of individuality on every one of us. This edition stands as testimony to the love and gratitude that it evokes. ISBR has always believed in nurturing well-rounded individuals. Through a range of co-curricular activities, seminars, leadership development programs, workshops, and more, our students have the chance to excel beyond academics. These activities instill the skills and values that make them standout professionals and leaders.

At ISBR, we have always worked through our varied approaches. We have different platforms that showcase the student's talents, and there are instances wherein our students have won the most coveted awards like the Best Manager award, Best research article award, Best Business Plan award and many more awards in various categories. We look forward to having many such achievers who will shine and bring laurels to themselves and the institution.

As you flip through the pages of this book, we encourage you to reflect on the unique journey of each student and the magic they carry with them into the world. ISBR is wishing to go a long way in nurturing many such young bright men and women for our country. We wish our students brighter prospects in all their endeavors and look forward to seeing them achieve great heights. Congratulations to all the students. May your future be as enchanting as your journey at ISBR!

Abhinandan Jaiswal

"Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality."

— Warren Bennis

BIOGRAPHY

Abhinandan Jaiswal, a PGDM graduate specializing in Data Science and Business Analytics, embodies the perfect blend of analytical precision and creative curiosity. Coming from a business-oriented family, his early exposure to entrepreneurship inspired his fascination with how data and strategy shape success. Beyond academics, Abhinandan expresses his creativity through playing the flute, dancing, and pool—pursuits that keep him balanced and inspired. Guided by his personal philosophy, "If I do anything, I do it with passion, or I don't do it at all," he approaches both work and life with wholehearted dedication.

JOURNEY AT ISBR

Abhinandan's journey at ISBR was one of transformation and gratitude. Moving to Bengaluru for the first time, he carried his family's dreams with pride, supported by his parents' encouragement and his sister's unwavering belief in him. From the first day of orientation—when his initiative was recognized—he embraced every opportunity to learn and contribute, representing ISBR at events, volunteering, and engaging in campus life. Each experience strengthened his confidence, patience, and sense of purpose.

KEY TAKEAWAYS AND FUTURE VISION

At ISBR, Abhinandan learned that true success comes from adaptability, consistency, and continuous growth. The experience taught him how to turn challenges into opportunities and ambition into action. As he looks ahead, he aims to combine business understanding with data-driven insight to craft strategic, impactful solutions—continuing to grow with persistence, empathy, and passion.

Aparajitha R, an alumna of ISBR Business School from Salem, Tamil Nadu, holds a PGDM in Data Science and Business Analytics. Her curiosity for uncovering insights through data fuels her passion for turning numbers into meaningful stories that drive business impact. She believes analytics can inspire informed and positive change. Outside work, she enjoys reading, journaling, and music, pursuits that enhance her creativity and mindfulness. Grounded in a close-knit family, Aparajitha values empathy, perseverance, and integrity—principles that continue to guide both her personal and professional journey.

JOURNEY AT ISBR

Aparajitha's ISBR journey was one of rediscovery and growth. Returning to academics after corporate experience, she embraced a learning environment that fostered confidence and collaboration. Engaging in live projects, research, and club activities, she strengthened her analytical and leadership abilities. A highlight was presenting her research paper at an international conference, which boosted her self-assurance and determination. ISBR helped her evolve from being reserved to becoming an articulate, confident professional.

KEY TAKEAWAYS AND FUTURE ENDEAVORS

ISBR taught Aparajitha that true leadership is rooted in empathy, adaptability, and service. Participating in social initiatives and teaching children about cybersecurity deepened her sense of purpose and teamwork. The experience reinforced her belief in lifelong learning and meaningful contribution. Moving forward, Aparajitha aims to grow in analytics and consulting, using data-driven insights and innovation to create sustainable, positive change.
